

What All of This Is For

Parade of Future Generations

Gently

Words and Music by
Carrie Maxwell Wrigley

Narrators: G A D G A D

Nephi spent his life testifying of Christ, in spoken words to his people, and in written words preserved for future generations.

Bm G D Em G/D Asus⁴ A

Like his father before him, he did talk of Christ, he preached and testified of Christ. But that family legacy of faith and testimony did not end with them.

G D/F# Em⁷ D/F#

Year after year, generation after generation, century after century, other prophets arose in turn among our father's family,

Full cast and choir:

p Ah Ah

SATB unison - Men high, same notes as women

G D/F# Em⁷ Asus⁴ A

each bearing witness of the Savior, each adding his voice to the united testimony written and preserved in that sacred family record.

mp Ah Ah

Men low note, women high note

SA split top 2 notes

G A D G A D

The words of Nephi, and those that followed him, have now gone forth in many languages, and in many nations - blessing many families, and changing many lives.

SATB Unison Ah _____ div. - Men/altos on bottom Ah _____

Bm G D G/E G/A Gm/A

We never know when our humble efforts might make a difference in the life of a loved one - whether in this mortal journey, or beyond. But God, who sees the end from the beginning;

SATB Unison Ah _____ Ah _____

G G/A Dsus⁴ D

and who knows what we do not, can guide us securely to our most fruitful course of action. He can dry our tears, cheer our hearts, and see us through whatever challenges life might put before us.

Div - SSA, with men doubling altos Ah _____

D(add2) G(add2)/D D(add2) G(add2)/D

So it was, in the time in which we lived. So it continues to be, in the time in which you live.

(Segue to "Imperfect World")